

IPE Case Descriptions

1-The Case of Mrs. Emma Taffey

- 73 y.o. married woman with diabetes and several related health issues
- Rural health

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, practical nurse, OT, PT, SW, dietician, clinical psychologist, audiologist, pharmacist

2- The Case of Jane Black

- 32 year old pregnant mother of three young children, including a disabled daughter
- Recently diagnosed with diabetes and admitted to hospital

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, practical nurse, OT, SW, dietician, pharmacist

3-The Case of Jasper Beardley

- 85 y.o. living in a veterans' care facility
- Dementia, hip fracture
- Includes assessment findings for OT, PT, SLP and Audiology
- Includes questions re role of interprofessional team members
- Includes full answers to questions

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, practical nurse, OT, PT, SLP, SW, dietician, pharmacist, clinical psychologist, recreation therapist, audiologist

4-The Case of Mr. John Doe

- 55 y.o. homeless man
- Alcohol-related dementia
- Amputation of foot due to frostbite

Potential Professions: paramedicine, medicine, nurse, practical nurse, OT, PT, SW, dietician, clinical psychologist, psychiatrist, audiologist, pharmacist

5- MotherReach Drop-In Program – The Case of Patricia Walker

- 30 y.o. married woman with a newborn and a 2 year old
- Post-partum depression and stress
- Financial issues

Potential Professions: nurse, OT, SW, clinical psychologist

6-The Case of Mr. Peter Herman

- 67 y.o. man with MS living in a LTC facility
- Ethical dilemma arises when he is found having sexual intercourse with another resident

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, practical nurse, OT, PT, SW, dietician, clinical psychologist, psychiatrist, pharmacist, recreation therapy

7-Merrymount Children's Centre – The Case of Rebecca Robinson

- 27 y.o. single mother
- Emotional and financial issues
- Two sons have behavioural problems

- Dietary issues

Potential Professions: nurse, SW, dietician, OT, PT, child & youth worker,

8-Centre for Family Health Southdale Clinic- The Case of Tracy MacDonald

- 30 y.o. divorced mother of 3 children
- Depression, anxiety
- Son has ADHD, daughter has PTSD

Potential Professions: nurse, SW, clinical psychologist, child & youth worker, dietician, OT

9- The Case of Virginia Snow

- 45 y.o. single mother
- Chronic pain, depression, alcohol abuse

Potential Professions: nurse, SW, clinical psychologist, dietician, OT, PT, pharmacist

10-A Child is Crying – The Case of Cindy

- 15 year old girl with depression, thoughts of suicide and auditory hallucinations
- Admitted to an acute Mental Health in-patient team

Potential Professions: psychiatrist, nurse, OT, SW, clinical psychologist, pharmacist

11-Freeport Rehab Team Case Study – The Case of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest

- Mr. Forrest – hypertension, diabetes, recent stroke with resulting right hemiplegia and aphasia
- Mrs. Forrest – frail, mild dementia, dependent on Mr. Forrest

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, practical nurse, OT, PT, SLP, SW, dietician, pharmacist

12-Grey-Bruce Case Study - The Case of Martha Schmidt

- 60 year old married, previously employed and active woman who recently had a stroke causing mild right side weakness, visual-perceptual, language, and cognitive impairments
- Patient and family are struggling with the changes in her health and independence at home

Potential Professions: nurse, OT, PT, SLP, SW, dietician

13-LHSC Neurosciences Program Case Study – The Case of Jacob Gartner

- 88 year old married man who just had a major right CVA causing dense left hemiplegia, aphasia
- Issues of family adjustment to this event, substitute decision-making, code status

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, OT, SLP, SW, pharmacist

14-Case of Jeff

- 34 y.o. married man with ALS
- Dealing with the death of a client

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, practical nurse, OT, SLP, SW, PT, clinical psychologist, spiritual care

15-Case of Sylvie LeBlanc

- 76 year old woman living alone in a two story house; attends seniors day program
- Cognitive decline, anxiety/depression, asthma, hearing loss, history of falls

Potential Professions: nurse, SW, clinical psychologist, dietician, OT, audiologist, respiratory therapist, pharmacist

16-Case of Harold Stanley

- 81 year old man living alone after wife's recent stroke
- Increased alcohol use, depression, difficulty coping with wife's situation

Potential Professions: nurse, SW, clinical psychologist, OT, pharmacist

17-Case of Sharon Carson

- 18 year old woman with poorly controlled Type 1 diabetes

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, SW, dietician, pharmacist

18- Case of Mary Avaalaaquiq

- 81 year old Inuit woman from Baffin Island, currently receiving care for advanced lung and laryngeal cancer at a Montreal cancer treatment centre
- Remote aboriginal health

Potential Professions: nurse, SW, SLP

19- Case of Ida Vanderheyden

- 75 year old widow, recent move from family farm to townhouse
- OA in hips and knees, cataracts, tinnitus, 2 recent falls and subsequent fear of falling

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, PT, OT, audiology, SW

20- Case of Ruth Simmons

- 65 year old widow, lives alone in a 2-storey house
- Admitted to hospital with left CVA resulting in right hemiparesis and aphasia
- Includes audiology, OT, PT and SLP assessment results

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, OT, PT, SLP, audiology, SW, clinical psychologist, dietician, recreation therapist

21- Case of Mr. and Mrs. White

- Elderly couple, retired farmers living in their own semi-rural home
- Mr. White has Parkinson's disease, severe rheumatoid arthritis and failing health on multiple levels; was admitted to the local hospital for respite care
- Mrs. White has congestive heart failure and care giver burnout

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, OT, PT, SLP, SW, clinical psychologist

22- Case of Michelle Goodfellow

- 34 year old single aboriginal mother, pregnant at 26 weeks gestation
- Overwhelmed with the combative behaviour of one of her sons
- History of gestational Diabetes, arrives at clinic for first prenatal appt.

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, dietician, SW, clinical psychologist