

Video Case Descriptions

1-The Case of Albert

- 70 year old married man with past alcohol abuse, depression, anxiety all related to the long ago death of his 7 year old son which he has never been able to come to terms with
- Lung disease with several recent visits to ER due to shortness of breath

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, OT, PT, SW, clinical psychologist, respiratory therapist, pharmacist

2-The Case of Beth

- 30 year old single, unemployed woman with history of childhood sexual abuse and a past conviction of child molestation
- Rheumatoid arthritis, smoker, alcohol and drug abuse, weight-gain, depression, housing issues

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, OT, PT, SW, dietician, clinical psychologist, pharmacist

3-The Case of Mrs. and Mr. Black

- 32 year old pregnant mother of three young children, including a daughter with cystic fibrosis
- Recently diagnosed with diabetes and admitted to hospital
- Mr. Black is a heavy smoker who hasn't been able to quit and is overwhelmed with the responsibilities of taking care of his family

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, practical nurse, OT, SW, dietician, pharmacist

4-The Case of Emma

- 73 y.o. married woman with diabetes and several related health issues
- Rural health

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, practical nurse, OT, PT, SW, dietician, clinical psychologist, audiologist, pharmacist

5-The Case of Molly

- 21 year old woman, 1 week post MVA with multiple injuries and fractures including spinal cord and trauma to head
- Includes details about role of each health professional in Molly's care as well as a facilitator guide and care plan template
- Video is about 25 minutes in length

Potential Professions: medicine, nurse, OT, PT, SLP, SW, clinical psychologist, dietician